

Recognized by Frost & Sullivan with the

2022 ENABLING TECHNOLOGY LEADERSHIP AWARD

in the North American over-the-air automotive management software industry

Sibros' approach empowers OEMs to address hundreds of connected vehicle use cases.

The company has combined its technology focus with customer-centric values to earn a solid reputation in the market.

Sibros excels in the following criteria in the over-the-air automotive management software industry:

Commercialization Success

Application Diversity

Commitment to Creativity

Customer Service Experience

Enabling Technology Leadership Award

recognizes the company that applies its technology in new ways to improve existing products and services and elevate the customer experience.