To receive the Company of the Year Award requires a company to demonstrate excellence in growth, innovation, and leadership. This excellence typically translates into superior performance in three key areas—demand generation, brand development, and competitive positioning—that serve as the foundation of a company's future success and prepare it to deliver on the 2 factors that define the Company of the Year Award.

Ansell has become one of the most reliable and sustainable providers, with a strong focus on delivering value-added services. For instance, Ansell provided a responsible and reliable supply of medical gloves in public hospitals in New South Wales, Australia, showing quick lead times and on-time in-full (OTIF) delivery performance exceeding 98%.

With its strong overall performance, Ansell is recognized with Frost & Sullivan's 2024 Global Company of the Year Award in the hospital supplies industry.
